Sir,

No
Date 13/8

Subject - Grant of an allowance of Rs 10/- per mensem to the Municipal Vaccinator of the Chickmagalur Town Municipality for supervising the garden near the Town Hall

In forwarding herewith letter No M1 P R 3/49-50 dated 14th/22nd July 1949 with its enclosures, received from the President, Town Municipal Council, Chickmagalur on the above subject, I write to state as follows -

The payment of an allowance of Rs 10/- per mensem to Sri A V Venkatachalaiah, Vaccinator for the Chickmagalur Town Municipality was sanctioned as a temporary measure from Ist July 1948 by Government in their order No L 2847-50/M1 7-48-2 dated 20th September 1948, with instructions that the Municipal Council may either depute one of their employees to the Lal-bagh at Bangalore for undergoing training in Horticulture for being eventually entrusted with the supervision of the Municipal gardens, or entrust the work to the Local Horticultural Inspector on an allowance of P 10/- per mensem, so as to achieve the best return for the expenditure incurred by the Municipality

With regard to the suggestion for getting one of their employee trained in Horticulture, I may state that the Council have already decided on 17-6-1948 that it is not desirable to depute any of their employees, in view of the expenditure involved in the proposal Except the menial staff, other employees will be frequently changed from one Municipality to the other As regards entrusting the supervision work to the Local Horticultural Inspector, it has been resolved by the Council that the services of the Horticultural Inspector will not be available at all times, as he will be moving within the District in the discharge of his regular duties, that the services of the garden coolies will have also to be employed for other work than garden work which requires the supervision of a Municipal employee and that therefore the gardens must be supervised by their Vaccinator. They have they have therefore resolved to continue the payment of the allowance to the Municipal Vaccinator, in view of this service being rather continued from a long time.

Under the above circumstances, I am of opinion that the proposal of the Town Municipal Council, Chickmagalur may be sanctioned, for the time being.

Yours Faithfully,

Deputy Commissioner,
Chickmagalur District
